No. 10

Due to hurricane Florence heavy rains were predicted to be in our area the Sunday the Allandale show was scheduled so a quick decision had to be made to reschedule for the following Sunday and because the mansion was already booked we moved the show to the ETSU Center. Most all comments were positive by participants and members.

A huge shout out to ETSU Center and staff for all their support and the planning involved with such short notice.

Dave Williams and Randy Still deserve a huge thank you for the numerous hours spent on making this event one to be remembered as well as the teamwork provided by many members for making this another huge and successful Annual meet. Our thanks to the ROTC for their help and hard work also I might add they have an amazing group.

Participating were 150 plus vehicles along with several member's cars on the show field along with beautiful weather made for a great show. The annual Allandale Show will be held at the Allandale Mansion next year 2019 weather permitting.

October is a busy month so far Randy Still and I went to Atlanta with his 1925 Franklin to participate in the Concour'd Elegance in which I'm proud to say won an award in its class. Next week-end is the AACA National fall meet in Hershey Pennsylvania. Randy Still will be showing a 1993 Cadillac. Several members will be judging there. A week off then on to Hilton Head Concours'd Elegance where Randy Still will be showing his Crosley pickup which was previously owned by Tom and Barbara Hughes.

Our next meeting will be at Rush Street Restaurant in Kingsport Oct 15, 2018 dinner will be at 6 pm and meeting at 7pm. My plan is to discuss future officers and our upcoming Christmas dinner. We hope you will join us.

Please remember to pray for all club members and families that continue to be standing in the need of prayer.

President Don Wood

The show at Allandale which became the show at ETSU Allandale really turned out well due to the consistently hard work of Dave Williams, a large round of applause is needed for all of his work. This wasn't the usual number of participants or attendees but the weather gave an abundance of sunshine and automobiles of all colors, and makes and in all stages of beauty found their way to the University's pavement.

DAN'L BOONE REGION AACA Minutes

Sept. 10, 2018

Our September 10th Meeting was held at the Rush Street Grill. The meeting was called to order by President, Don Wood, and he led members in the Pledge of Allegiance. With our meeting one week early, there was not a meeting room available, so we made do in an open section of the restaurant. Don called on Wayne Lambert to give the Treasurer's Report. Deborah Crawford attended the meeting but asked Randy Still to give the Secretary's Report. Randy gave the minutes of both the July Meeting and the August Picnic. Don thanked Sam Quillen for making the reservations for the picnic and handling the cooking detail and food procurement.

Don then called on Dave Williams to review plans for the Allandale Car Show. It was decided that we would not order additional car show shirts due to the risk of leftovers and the limited profit potential of an additional order. Other responsibilities for the event were reviewed. Due to the lack of a meeting room and a focal point, the program was not done. The meeting was adjourned and members enjoyed visiting with one another.
