President's Message – November

The many cards, phone calls, prayers and visits from Dan'l Boone Region members are sincerely appreciated. I have now completed my 2nd of 6 chemotherapy treatments at Vanderbilt and the support of my friends has been a big boost for me as I deal with my lymphatic cancer. It has frankly, at points, been a scary experience, but I now feel more confident of my recovery. I regret that my illness has caused me to miss so many meeting but there was no choice. I fully realize that I am one of many region members battling serious health issues and wish you all a good recovery. My goal is to be well enough to attend the Amelia Island Concours in mid – March.

Unfortunately, my next round of chemo at Vanderbilt is scheduled for November 21st – the date of our next meeting. So, it looks like I will miss that one as well. I miss you all and apologize that circumstances prevented me from fulfilling my duties as region president.

I appreciate Don Wood and Dave Williams taking care of recent meetings and hope to join you for the Christmas Party on December 5th at Mayfair. Please do not think of me as unfriendly, but I have been instructed not to shake hands or hug while my resistance is low so I will be keeping my distance. I miss seeing all of you and wish you the best. Randy

Was this Woody's First Set of Wheels?

Pictured in the above photo, which appeared in the Oct. 3, 1936 edition of the Kingsport Times-News, are Mildred Fleenor Taylor, who was 11 years old at the time, and her 10-year-old cousin Woodrow "Woody" Fleenor, both of whom won bicycles at the regular meeting of the Popeye Club at the State Theatre in downtown Kingsport. The prizes were given by Big Brother Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store through its manager, J.D. Wimberly, shown above standing at the right of Popeye Pepper, manager of the theater. The picture below is of Mildred and Woody present-day. Both are now 91 years old. Submitted by Mildred Fleenor Taylor of Blountville. Woody Fleenor lives in Kingsport.
